Leadership Award

The N.H. Psychiatric Society Leadership Award has been established to recognize and encourage excellence in advancing the goals of the Society. Recipients may be nominated at any time by any society member, who can write a letter in support of the nomination. Recipients will be chosen by the Executive Council. The award will be bestowed based on meeting at least one of three criteria: demonstrating leadership by excellent clinical example, advancing the care of the mentally ill in New Hampshire through exemplary public service or outstanding service to the N.H. Psychiatric Society.

Award will be presented to:

Dr. Robert Murray

Shannon Bader, PhD

Shannon Bader is a clinical psychologist board certified in forensic psychology. She spent three years working as part of an interdisciplinary treatment team at the largest forensic hospital in California, treating male patients committed as NGRI or other long-term criminal commitments. After the hospital was ordered to be overseen by the Department of Justice, Dr. Bader began researching patterns of violence within the five state hospitals and instituting violence reduction strategies throughout this state system. Since 2015, she has been the Chief of Forensic Evaluations for the State of New Hampshire.

Lisa A. Mistler, MS, MD

Lisa Mistler is a board certified psychiatrist who has worked as an attending on acute admissions units at state hospitals in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. She is currently the Director of the Inpatient Stabilization Unit at New Hampshire Hospital. Since 2013, she has been researching assessment and measurement of aggression and violence on psychiatric inpatient units. She was the site principal investigator for Project PAUSE, which used mHealth technology to evaluate predictors of aggression and violence on inpatient units. She was also the principal investigator for a Geisel School of Medicine Department of Psychiatry Gary Tucker Junior Investigator Research Award, which used mHealth technology to deliver a mindfulness meditation intervention for aggressive and violent inpatients.

Lisa A. Mistler, MS, MD

After graduating from Hahnemann Medical College and completing his residency at The Institute of Pennsylvania Hospital in Philadelphia, Dr. Murray practiced there for ten years before moving to New Hampshire in 1994. He worked at Riverbed CMHC for over twenty years, first as Medical Director of its CSP and then as Medical Director for the agency. After a short but eventful time at NHH he now is the psychiatrist at the Northern Human Services Wolfeboro Office.
