The N.H. Psychiatric Society Leadership Award has been established to recognize and encourage excellence in advancing the goals of the Society. Recipients may be nominated at any time by any society member, who can write a letter in support of the nomination. Recipients will be chosen by the Executive Council. The award will be bestowed based on meeting at least one of three criteria: demonstrating leadership by excellent clinical example, advancing the care of the mentally ill in New Hampshire through exemplary public service or outstanding service to the N.H. Psychiatric Society.

Award will be presented to:

Lieutenant Frank N. Harris

Matthew Davis, MD, is currently the medical director for Behavioral Health Services at Portsmouth Regional Hospital. He oversees psychiatric staff who provide services for the 30-bed inpatient unit and consults to the emergency department and medical floors in addition to an electroconvulsive therapy (ECT) program and Partial Hospitalization Program. Prior to his work at PRH, Dr. Davis was a staff psychiatrist for 4 years at New Hampshire Hospital. He has served on the New Hampshire Psychiatric Society Executive Council since 2014.

Alexander de Nesnera, MD, is the chief medical officer at New Hampshire Hospital, and associate professor of psychiatry at Dartmouth’s Geisel School of Medicine. He earned his medical degree from Dartmouth’s Geisel School of Medicine. Dr. de Nesnera is the past president and legislative liaison of the New Hampshire Psychiatric Society. He has worked in the public sector for 27 years, treating individuals suffering from severe and persistent mental illness.

Ellen Minerva, MD’s work as a psychiatrist in NH began in 2011 as an inpatient attending at NHH where she worked until 7/16. Since that time, she has been working for Riverbend Community Mental Health at Concord Hospital. She came to NH from MD where she had worked as a Unit Director on the Wayne Fenton in the Sheppard Pratt Hospital System. Her prior experience includes working as a senior consultant psychiatrist in New Zealand, as a staff psychiatrist at Georgetown Student Services and in the Georgetown Dept. of Psychiatry, at George Washington University Department of Psychiatry and in private practice in Washington, DC.

Christine Finn, MD, is currently the director of psychiatric emergency services at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center and previously held the same position at Massachusetts General Hospital. Her clinical work focuses on emergency and consultative psychiatry. Additionally, she is heavily involved in the education of psychiatry residents, medical students and fellows in her roles of Vice Chair for Education for the Department of Psychiatry, and the Residency Program Director.

Lieutenant Frank Harris, the current Unit Commander for the New Hampshire Department of Safety, Division of State Police.
